

DeKalb County Community Gardens

Strengthens access to fresh, local sustainably-grown organic food for people in need

- Nearly 40 garden sites County wide (14 schools and 25 community sites)
- Over 200 5' by 10' raised garden beds
- Over 15 acres of food growing area
- 2014 over 16,000 pounds of food donated to food pantries, senior centers, community meal sites, and Voluntary Action Center.
- Over 300 volunteers throughout the growing season!

DeKalb County Community Gardens

*Strengthens access to fresh, local sustainably-grown organic food for
people in need*

- Nearly 40 garden sites County wide (14 schools and 25 community sites)
- Over 200 5' by 10' raised garden beds
- Over 15 acres of food growing area
- 2014 over 16,000 pounds of food donated to food pantries, senior centers, community meal sites, and Voluntary Action Center.
- Over 300 volunteers throughout the growing season!

DeKalb County Community Gardens is an innovative approach to end hunger at the local level through community involvement, education, and a commitment to the environment.

WAYS YOU CAN BE INVOLVED!

- Volunteer -We have need for volunteers with and without gardening skills. We need volunteers for both in the garden and outside the garden.
- Donate - Plants, and seeds; land, old tools, bricks, stones, wood,etc
- Financial Support - Of any amount will help support the effort checks payable to: DCCG and Mail to: P.O. Box 348 DeKalb IL 60115
- Spread the Word - Share the work of DCCG with others. Together we can end hunger in our County. No child needs to go to bed hungry in a County where we have land and means to grow our own food.

To get involved visit us on Facebook, website: www.dekalbgardens.org or email DCCG Executive Director: Dan Kenney, dkenney53@hotmail.com

The DeKalb County Community Gardens organization is an innovative approach to end hunger at the local level, through community involvement, education, and a commitment to the environment.

WAYS YOU CAN BE INVOLVED!

- Volunteer -We have need for volunteers with and without gardening skills. We need volunteers for both in the garden and outside the garden.
- Donate - Plants, and seeds; land, old tools, bricks, stones, wood, tillers, etc
- Financial Support - Of any amount will help support the effort checks payable to: DCCG and Mail to: P.O. Box 348 DeKalb IL 60115
- Spread the Word - Share the work of DCCG with others. Together we can end hunger in our County. No child needs to go to bed hungry in a County where we have land and means to grow our own food.

To get involved visit us on Facebook, website: www.dekalbgardens.org or email DCCG Executive Director: Dan Kenney, dkenney53@hotmail.com